

Governance Procedures

As referred to in Statutes 26 October 2021

1. Membership

Categories

a. Full Members (voting)

- National Endocrinology and Metabolism Societies
- Other national scientific or clinical organizations significantly involved with endocrinology, e.g. sub-specialties

There can be more than one Full Member from a country.

b. Ancillary Member Categories (non-voting)

Associate Members

- Individuals from countries of which the national endocrinology society is not a member of ISE, or where there is no national endocrinology society, can join ISE as non-voting Associate Members.

Candidate Societies

- A group of individuals or an embryonic national endocrinology society can apply to be a Candidate Society working towards full National Endocrinology Society status, subject to meeting specific eligibility criteria. ISE may support the formation efforts of the candidate society in meeting the full member eligibility criteria.

Regional Partners

- Regional endocrinology federations can join as Regional Partners. Memoranda of Understanding (MoUs) will formalize the relationship with these regional endocrinology federations.

Affiliate Members

- Any organization (national, regional or global) which subscribes to the ISE Vision can join as an Affiliate Member. Memoranda of Understanding (MoUs) will formalize the relationship with these affiliated member organizations.

Admission

Organizations wishing to become a Full Member shall apply to the Board by completing the Society's official membership application form in English accompanied by a copy of the society's constitution, a summary of its background, objectives and the organizational structure.

Eligibility criteria

All member organizations:

- Are legally incorporated and/or registered with a relevant national authority as a not for profit organization with a suitable governing document (except Candidate Societies)
- Are independent of, and institutionally separated from, government, political parties and private companies and operating in a transparent manner

- Involve voluntary participation, which includes having a committed Board of Trustees/Directors
- Keep accurate annual records of its income, expenditure and assets, open for inspection by an independent auditor and available to ISE.
- Acknowledge the active support of, and willingness to participate in, the fulfilment of ISE's Strategy, Vision and Mission
- Accept and abide by the ISE Statutes, Values and Code of Conduct (to be developed)
- Adhere to the guiding principles and practices within ISE's Fundraising Policy and have in place its own policy to clarify interaction with the healthcare industry in order to maintain independence
- Make a contribution to ISE's annual budget through the payment of membership dues (except Candidate Societies, Regional Partners and Affiliate Members)

Additional eligibility criteria for Candidate Societies:

- A group of minimum 10 healthcare professionals in the field of endocrinology or any of its sub-specialties driven by science and patient care for people with endocrine and metabolic disorders
- With the aim to become a national scientific endocrinology society conducting at least one of the following activities:
  - o organise programs at national level to advance research, continuing medical education and clinical practice in endocrinology

  - o advocate and engage in influencing national policy for endocrine inclusive health and patient care across the life span
- Being separate from any existing ISE member organization, with no substantial number of shared members.
- Committing to communicate, network and collaborate with existing or potential ISE member organizations worldwide.

Membership dues

Full Members (voting)

- The membership fee consists of 3 USD per individual member in the society.
- For societies with more than 3000 members, the fee for any member beyond 3000 will be at 2 USD per individual member.
- Member societies shall inform ISE of the number of individual members by 30 November, based on which the fee for the following year will be invoiced by December 31st.
- Membership fee payment is due by 31 March. Voting rights will be suspended by 30 June. Membership will be terminated by 30 September.
- A request for reduced or waved membership fees will be reviewed by the Finance Working Group for approval by the Board

Ancillary member categories (non-voting)

The following membership fees apply for ancillary members

- Associate Members:
  - o 25 USD per associate per year for members from low and lower middle income countries.
  - o 50 USD per associate per year for members from upper middle and high-income countries.
- Candidate Societies: no fee until the society is officially incorporated in their country and joins ISE as a Full Member.

- Regional Partners: no fee, instead an annual MOU will be agreed
- Affiliate Members: no fee, instead an annual MOU will be agreed

For new members joining from 1 October onwards, the membership fee payment will be due as per the new calendar year.

Termination of Membership

A complaint against a member alleging grounds for termination as set forth in the Bylaws may be submitted in writing by any member or member representative to the Senior Leadership Team. If the Senior Leadership Team, in consultation with the Board determines that the complaint is sufficiently credible and substantive to warrant consideration, the Senior Leadership Team will forward the complaint the Ethics Committee.

The member will be given written notice of the complaint, ideally within six weeks from receipt of the complaint, including alleged grounds for expulsion, and will have an opportunity to be heard through a written submission or hearing by the Ethics Committee. The Ethics Committee will issue a written report with its findings, conclusions, and recommendation to the General Assembly. The General Assembly will consider the charges, the response of the member, and the report and recommendation of the Ethics Committee. The member and/or their personal representative may appear at the meeting where a decision will be made in order to present any defence. A two-thirds vote of the members of the General Assembly voting at the meeting is required to terminate the membership. No proxy or electronic voting is allowed. All rights, privileges, and interests as a member in the Society cease upon termination of membership.

2. Board Composition

The Nominations Committee will review and advise on changes in board composition as necessary in view of balanced member representation and strategic direction.

Composition of the board will:

- be between 15 and 20 members, allowing for proper geographical representation of the membership, yet concise enough to be efficient;
- ensure reasonable regional representation, diversity (in all its aspects) and opportunity across all members;
- be comprised of:

Senior Leadership

- President, and either President-Elect or Immediate Past President (alternate years)
- Secretary, and Secretary-Elect (when occurring)
- Treasurer

Board Members

- up to 3 positions for the largest Full Member societies with a minimum of 3000 individual members
- Allocated positions for Full Member societies reflecting the membership geography, for the Society year of 2021-2022 being up to:
  - 2 positions from the Americas
  - 3 positions from Europe
  - 1 position from the Middle East
  - 1 position from Africa
  - 3 positions from Asia Pacific.

- 1 position for the Early Careers Working Group
- up to 2 positions from Associate members
- up to 2 ad hoc positions can be co-opted by the Board to be ratified at the next AGM

Board members have in principle Board position terms of 4 cycles (from AGM to AGM), allowing flexibility to ascertain no more than one third of Board members roll off at any given time and allow for terms of Board members from one region to overlap.

Roles and Responsibilities

ISE Board members are expected to be leaders in their field and benefit from a significant international network and reputation. They will have an international outlook and a strong sense of diplomacy. Once appointed the Board member is a representative of ISE and acts in the best interest of ISE.

Any Board member having any pre-existing or potential conflict of interest, whether personally, professionally, or through another leadership commitment, in a contract or other transaction presented to the Board shall give prompt, full and frank disclosure of his or her interest prior to its acting on such contract or transaction.

If a conflict is deemed to exist, such person shall not vote on, nor participate (other than to present factual information or to respond to questions) in the discussions or deliberations with respect to, such contract, transaction or determination. Such person may not be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting where the contract, transaction, or determination is under discussion or is being voted upon. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect the disclosure made, the vote thereon and, where applicable the abstention from voting and participation, and whether a quorum was present.

Members will be expected to be ISE ambassadors, be promoters of ISE within their community and play active roles in permanent and/or ad-hoc Committees, Working or Advisory Groups.

Board members are expected to attend at least 2/3rd of the Board meetings held in-person or virtually in any society year, as well as the annual AGM. Board members may also be required to vote or provide electronic feedback on business matters raised by the Senior Leadership Team/Executive Office in a timely manner.

Removal

The Senior Leadership Team may, by majority vote, propose to remove any member of the Board in the best interests of the Society. The Board member will be given written notice, including the alleged grounds for removal, and given the opportunity to respond to the allegations. The Board will, after the response time frame for the Board member has ended, issue a written report with its findings, conclusions, and recommendation to the General Assembly. The General Assembly will consider the charges, the response of the Board member, and the report and recommendation of the Board. The Board member and/or their personal representative may appear at the meeting where a decision will be made in order to present any defence. A two-thirds vote of the members of the General Assembly voting at the meeting is required for removal. No proxy or electronic voting is allowed. All rights, privileges, and interest as a Board member will cease upon removal.
